

Full Time Long Term Trauma Therapist

Job Posting

The Laurel Centre is a non-profit agency providing therapy and support services for women who have experienced childhood and/or adolescent sexual victimization and want to resolve the long term effects of the abuse. The agency recognizes mental health challenges and addictions as some of the long-term consequences related to unresolved trauma.

The primary tasks of this position are long term individual and group trauma therapy.

Qualifications:

- Master's degree in relevant field (MSW, M.Ed., MFT, MA, MC)
- Minimum 1-year experience in similar position
- Comprehensive understanding of issues related to addiction, mental health and unresolved trauma related to child sexual abuse
- Working knowledge of a wide range of theoretical approaches and clinical interventions
- Ability to function independently and as part of a multi-disciplinary team
- Excellent written, verbal and interpersonal communication skills and organizational abilities

Responsibilities

- Conduct assessment with women on the waitlist to determine program and service needs
- Provide long-term individual therapy in accordance with The Laurel Centre's clinical model
- Design, plan, and facilitate therapy groups
- Manage caseload and keep records as required by the agency
- Consult and network with other agencies and professionals as required
- Assist in ensuring quality clinical services for those served by The Laurel Centre
